FRIENDLY EFFICIENCY

Photiades Solicitors is a general practice law firm that has been providing legal services to the people of Hertfordshire and beyond for over thirty years. We have three partners, based at one office in St Albans. Our focus is on providing a top class personal service to both individuals and businesses, at a reasonable cost and with our trademark friendly efficiency.

With a combination of up to the minute technology and good old fashioned personal service Photiades offers its clients the services they need and costs they can afford. Whether buying or selling your home, dealing with a loved ones estate or guiding you through the distress of divorce we are here to help.

With a wealth of legal knowledge and business experience our commercial partners can help. From the lease of your first office to seven figure commercial acquisitions we have the skill and experience you need.
