

PRESS RELEASE

LIBE AND LIZ ON TARGET

St Albans Hockey Club's Girls' Club Captain Libe Fadrique and Ladies' Club Captain Liz Cleverly were on the scoresheets on Saturday on a great weekend for the club. Fadrique and junior coach Sophie White scored in the Ladies 4th XI's 2-2 draw with Leighton Buzzard while Cleverly scored twice as the Ladies' 3s won 4-2 at Southend, the other goals coming from Mar Copues and Amy Lynn. The Ladies 2s also hit 4 in beating Chelmsford 4-0, to stay six points clear at the top of East Division 1S, through goals by Sarah Embrey (2), Emily Panniers and Fiona Nekeman. The men's 5s achieved an impressive 6-point weekend with Sunday's 3-2 win against Winchmore Hill following a 2-0 Saturday win against Bishop's Stortford. Three of the St Albans men's teams hit opponents for six. At Oaklands, a John Barrett hat-trick paved the way for the Emperors (men's vets) 6-0 win over Maidenhead, after the men's 4s beat Southgate Adelaide 6-2. Meanwhile the men's 1st XI won 6-0 at Wisbech, with goals from Mark Lowden (2), Paul Cooper (2), Alex Spencer and Matt Davey, to go within four points of division leaders Wapping whom the tangerines play in a crucial game at Oaklands at 3pm this Saturday. The Ladies 1s are in Nottingham for the weekend's National Div 2 indoor finals.
